

Questions for Sights in London

1. If you take the underground to St Paul's – what sight can you visit?
2. Why is 20 Fenchurch Street called The Walkie-Talkie?
3. Which sight is a private building?
4. Which sight looks like another famous sight?
5. Which building has the Kvänum based company Swegon been involved in?
6. Which sight has got most of its building material from abroad?
7. Where can you read about people who sacrificed themselves in order to save other people from dying?
8. Which sight has been damaged twice?
9. One person is mentioned in two of the texts. Who?
10. How much does it cost to visit the Sky Garden and how do you book a ticket?
11. What happened in 2016?
12. Which sight is said to look like a helmet?
13. Which sight is the oldest?
14. Who gets cheaper tickets to Arcelor Mittal Orbit?
15. Can you visit BAPS Shri Swaminarayan Mandir on a Wednesday?
16. Which sights are from the 1800s?
17. You can choose between two underground stations when you want to visit one of the sights. Which is the sight and what stations can you go to?
18. In which sight can you use a side?

Key to Questions for Sights in London

1. If you take the underground to St Paul's – what sight can you visit?
Postman's Park
2. Why is 20 Fenchurch Street called The Walkie-Talkie?
Because the building looks like a Walkie-Talkie
3. Which sight is a private building?
The Thin House
4. Which sight looks like another famous sight?
Little Ben
5. Which building has the Kvänum based company Swegon been involved in?
The Gherkin
6. Which sight has got most of its building material from abroad?
BAPS Shri Swaminarayan Mandir
7. Where can you read about people who sacrificed themselves in order to save other people from dying?
In Postman's Park
8. Which sight has been damaged twice?
St Dunstan-in-the-East Church Garden
9. One person is mentioned in two of the texts. Who?
Boris Johnson (as Mayor; later he was Prime Minister)
10. How much does it cost to visit the Sky Garden and how do you book a ticket?
It is free of charge/it doesn't cost anything; you book on the website
11. What happened in 2016?
A one-bedroom flat was sold in the Thin House and Little Ben was reinstalled
12. Which sight is said to look like a helmet?
The City Hall
13. Which sight is the oldest?
St Dunstan-in-the-East Church Garden
14. Who gets cheaper tickets to Arcelor Mittal Orbit?
Students, families of four and 60 years and over
15. Can you visit BAPS Shri Swaminarayan Mandir on a Wednesday?
Yes (you can visit every day)
16. Which sights are from the 1800s?
Postman's Park, the thin House and Little Ben
17. You can choose between two underground stations when you want to visit one of the sights. Which is the sight and what stations can you go to?
St Dunstan-in-the-East Church Garden; Monument and Tower Hill
18. In which sight can you use a side?
Arcelor Mittal Orbit