

NARROW LISTENING

1. Fill in the gaps with the appropriate word/s.

My name is Jack and I am 14 years old. I think that I am kind but I'm not really talkative because I am very shy. Some students at school think that I am boring because I don't like talking. Sometimes other students tell me that I have to be more talkative and more outgoing... but I can't! I'm shy and I get angry when they tell me that. I guess that I should be more outgoing or funnier or more talkative... but I can't! I really can't!

I look like my father... some people think that he is boring or that he is not funny... but he is just shy! I know that he is funny because at home I have a lot of fun with him. I know that he is talkative because we talk a lot about life in general. He is a teacher and yesterday he couldn't go to work because he had to go to the doctor. He has got some stomach problems, but it is nothing serious. I like his school because students can wear what they want and they don't have to stay at school during the break. As far as I know it is justified and a good thing is that all students are responsible and nobody skips classes. But the best thing is that students don't have to do homework at home and they can learn interesting things.
